

WELCOME !

January 25, 2021

Guest Speaker:

James Durnil M.Div BCC
Chaplain

Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin

How Hospice Services Fit into A Strategic Healthcare Plan

The ALS Association

National Office-Care Services

Ph: 800-782-4747 cknoche@alsa-national.org

How Hospice Services Fit into A Strategic Healthcare Plan

James Durnil, M.Div BCC

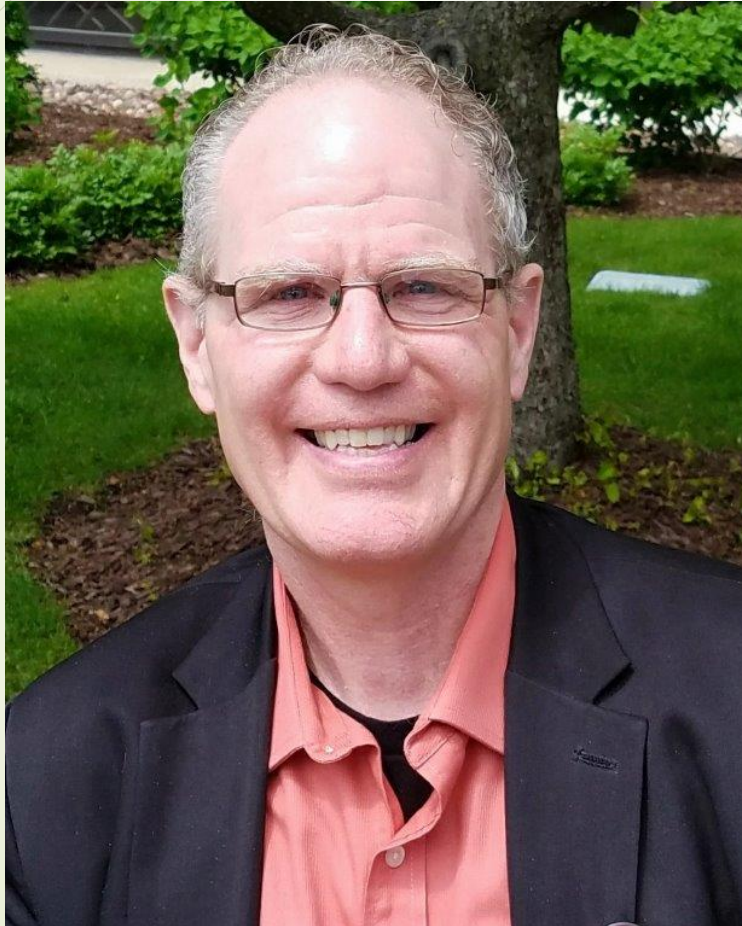

Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin

Objectives

- Understand the possible use of hospice
- Explain how hospice might be different for ALS Patients
- Learn how to involve hospice in your healthcare plan

A Brief Intro

- Chaplain in ICU and Rehab working closely with SWs
- Not a Hospice Chaplin or expert
- ALS Team and Pt's

Your ALS Story

- My point of reference
- You may have heard it before
- Major Question asked
- Changing Needs

Physical, Emotional and Spiritual Support

- Our Wish
- Needs, Means and State (possibly even by counties within the State)

Hospice

- What Hospice "IS NOT"
 - Giving up
 - 6 Month Sentence
 - About Death

Hospice cont'd

- Hospice "IS"
 - Another resource
 - More support
 - Creative
-

Hospice Benefit

- Standard
 - What might be available
 - What you can do
-

Who can you talk to

- Primary MD
 - ALS Clinic MD
 - Clinic Social Worker
-

What Can You Do

- Research Hospice
- Interview
- Listen to you body/self

From the Beginning

➤ "You matter because you are you, and you matter to the end of your life...."

– Dame Cicely Saunders, nurse, physician and writer, and founder of hospice movement (1918 – 2005).